

PIONEER VALLEY RAILROAD

A Pinsky Railroad Company

The Pioneer Valley Railroad (PVRR) was established in 1982 as part of the Pinsky Railroad Company. It serves industries, warehouse operations, and transload facilities in Westfield and Holyoke, MA. PVRR interchanges daily with CSXT in Westfield and in 2018 it reestablished an interchange with Pan Am/NS in Holyoke, MA.

The map on the reverse side depicts our proximity to key Northeastern markets like New York City, Boston, and Albany.

PVRR enjoys an outstanding reputation for its local rail service and customer service. It also serves and operates numerous warehouses and transload facilities that collectively provide a wide array of value-added services. PVRR also has access to industrial development sites, both with existing structures and green field.
